WHAT MEANS THIS ACT

Tell Me, News Review, What Caused McCoy's Course?

A REPUBLICAN LEADER SPEAKS

A Life Long Republican Cannot Understand the Situation—He Believes That Some Mighty Influence, Far In Excess of Local Power, Brought About the Withdrawal.

Republicans of Columbiana county will read with deep interest the following letter from a prominent, life-long Republican, a careful, considerate, conservative business man:

"I am free to confess that I do not understand the withdrawal of A. H. McCoy from the senatorial contest, in which I was taking a full hand, with the expectation of seeing Alex land the plum. I know that he had a tough job on hand. I know that, only a few weeks ago, one of his opponents held the whip hand and was running under a free rein, with almost certain victory in his grasp. I know that, at the time designated, the friends of this candidate for the state senate were very eager for an arrangement by and through which the candidate receiving the largest number of delegates should be given the entire delegation. But I know that a change came over the situation, and that this change was brought about by an article in the NEWS REVIEW, under date of February 24, headed 'McCoy with McKinley.' I know that the fact became patent to the enemies of McCoy that they had lost their grip; that McCoy had the majority of delegates under his banner, and at his command, and that his opponents would no longer consent that the candidate having the greatest number of delegates should control the entire Columbiana county delegation. I know that the opponents of McCoy became desperate when they discovered how their political horizon was dimmed, and I know that they resolved to defeat the choice of the people of Columbiana county, even if they carried, by a cunning combination of forces, the senatorial position to another county. I know that great pressure was brought to bear upon A. H. McCoy in this emergency, and I know that this pressure did not come from the petty, puny influence of any local politicians or wire pullers of East Liverpool. I do not know what this influence was, or the name of the individual possessing such mighty power. I wish I did know, and, unless all was fair and above board, I believe that I would raise such a din in political circles as would make Rome howl. I have faith in my friend, A. H. McCoy, and believe him to be an honorable, honest and high-minded man. I am in politics to stay, and, if there be foul play against the man of my choice, I'll be in the forefront of the battle when the contest is hottest against the man or men who perpetrated the dirty work. Kindly give room for this article in the NEWS REVIEW, a paper which I admire for its courageous and straightforward course, and fling defiance, for me, in the face of the men who now fondly imagine that they have the political life and ballots of Columbiana county in their breeches pocket, to be dealt out at will by them, for their chosen candidates. Ask these fellows, through your columns, if they fondly imagine that I do not know their secrets as to the stocking of the cards in the deal where they will place offices that they may do the most good—not to the people, the masses, the common, everyday voters, but to the hirelings of the would-be dictators. Tell them, for me, that they are standing on the comparatively quiet crater of a burning, seething volcano, and that my sincere hope is that they will be overtaken by the molten lava of public indignation and wrath when the explosion comes. The time of the convulsion is not far distant, and God speed the day when it will overwhelm rotten politics in its much-needed purifying influence. CLEAN POLITICS.

MARLATT IS BEHAVING.

The Demon Was Taken Out For a Long Walk.

The Columbus Journal has the following: "Guard Pritner had Ira Marlatt out in the prison ward for a long walk. The 'prison demon' enjoyed the outing hugely and spent part of the time catechising some of the officials as to whether they were afraid of him. He laughed at Superintendent Laney when that officer asserted that he was not afraid of him, and asked him if he thought he would hurt him. 'I don't know whether you would or not,' said the officer, whereat Marlatt laughed in great glee. He seems more tractable than he has yet appeared in all his imprisonment."

WELLSVILLE IN EARNEST.

The Citizens Are Hot After the Liquor Curse.

"By reference to our Wellsville news in today's issue, it will be seen that over 1,000 persons have signed a petition to the council of our sister city, asking that saloons and the sale of intoxicants shall be barred from the city limits. The business men, merchants and citizens in general are asking that East Liverpool lovers of clean life shall take the same action, asking God's blessing upon the movement, and then going to work with a vim in helping answer their own prayers. Our voters, those who desire that clean life shall rule, and that the rising generation shall not be surrounded with constant temptation in the form of gilded saloons, death traps for the unwary, leading to woe, sorrow and suffering in this life, and eternal banishment from the presence of God and heaven for all time to come, will be awakened to the deadly peril they are facing at the coming primaries, as the whisky ring is now making quiet but superhuman efforts to secure a council which will wink at the damnable traffic."

ANTI-SALOONIST.

COME OUT FOR COUNCIL.

There Is Room For the Right Kind of Men.

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW:—There is no earthly reason why so many men who would make the best kind of councilmen do not declare themselves and make a fight for the office. I am one of a committee, you might call us that, who called on a prominent resident, and asked him to run for council. He said that nothing would induce him to take the thankless job. He was not yet ready to lose his friends. That sounds right until we remember that if everybody talked that way the town would soon go to the dogs. Somebody must look after our interests, and the various societies who will form the new council might just as well be good men.

A COMMITTEEMAN.

THE BALL PLAYERS.

They Are Preparing For the Coming Season.

The make up of the Stars for the season of '97 is as follows: Baxter, catcher; Webber and Curran, pitchers; Godwin, short; Frey, first; Kennedy, second; Hester, third; Howard, left; Lynch, middle; Davis, right.

It is probable no effort will be made to reorganize the East Liverpool team, as the managers had all they wanted of base ball last season. Mike Lynch has received a letter from the manager of the Auburn, N. Y., club asking for his terms for the season of '97. Lynch is a good pitcher, and with a little experience would undoubtedly find his way into the Eastern league.

MUD IN THE COUNTRY.

The Roads Are Again Without Much Bottom.

There is but little travel across the country to Lisbon because of the miserable condition of the roads. In some places the mud is so deep as to make them almost impassable. The frost has come out of the ground, as the farmers put it, and has left them in the condition for which Columbiana county roads are notorious. One farmer who came to town yesterday afternoon said that his horses almost stuck, and the load was only five dozen of eggs and himself and son. He came to buy some hardware, but thought he would leave it until the roads got better.

NO APPOINTMENT.

There Is Still a Vacancy in the Fire Company.

When Fireman Deidrick resigned his position and took up a place with the telephone company it was expected that the vacancy would be filled at once, but Chief Morley has to this time taken no action. Special Officer Pat Woods has been on duty at the station, and will continue until the appointment is made, which will be within the next few days. It is not necessary that council confirm the appointment, but it is always, through courtesy, reported to that body for approval. This will likely be asked at the next meeting.

CLEANING PAVED STREETS.

Commissioner Finley Now Only Needs Good Weather.

The street force yesterday occupied their time repairing boxes and sewers on the hill road to East End. A large hole in Grant street was filled with cinders. Broadway is being scraped today, and if the weather continues favorable the paved streets will be cleaned before any other work is done.

DATE HAS BEEN SET

The Street Railway Will Be Sold Early in May.

ARRANGEMENTS ARE COMPLETED

The Road, All Real Estate, Motive Power, Electrical Appliances and Equipment Go Under the Sheriff's Hammer Two Months From Tomorrow

LISBON, March 2.—[Special.]—Charles Brooks, of the firm of Squire, Sanders & Dempsey, of Cleveland, representing the Savings & Trust company, of that city, was here last evening when the final arrangements for the sale of the East Liverpool and Wellsville street railway were completed, and from present indications the road and all real estate, motive power, electrical appliances, etc., will go under the hammer Monday, May 3, from the door of the courthouse. The decree taken in common pleas Dec. 28, renders judgment in favor of the Savings & Trust Co. for $288,439.27, and stipulates that the road shall be advertised in Cleveland, East Liverpool and Wellsville papers for a period of 60 days. Appraisers will be chosen and an appraisal made within a few days.

William Baggott filed a deed yesterday afternoon which gave J. H. Mountford lots 71, 72, the west 28 feet of lot 66, and a river fraction in East Liverpool, including the Baggott property, all machinery, tools, material, the right and title of Baggott Bros. in the use of Water street as granted to them by special ordinance, subject only to the rights of the Cleveland and Pittsburgh. The consideration was $16,000.

The verbal will made by George Henderson, in Salineville, during his last illness has been proven in probate court and admitted.

Thirty couples were married in this county in February. Court convened this morning with Judge Smith on the bench, and the case of John Mitchell, of East Palestine, against the Fairfield Coal company goes to trial. The action is to recover $5,000 damages for injury received in a mine. A large number of witnesses are called.

SALUTED THE MAJOR.

East Palestine Was Brilliant With Red Fire.

EAST PALESTINE, March 1.—[Special.]—East Palestine greeted Major McKinley in old fashioned East Liverpool style last night. The boys at the new pottery of the Sebring company bought all the red fire in town, and when the train passed the pottery was a blaze of light. The president elect stood on the rear platform, and as the train went through smiled and bowed to the enthusiastic crowd, doubtless recognizing many of the East Liverpool people. The ladies in the cars waved their handkerchiefs, and the crowd cheered. The crowd was wild with enthusiasm, and the cheering lasted until the train passed out of sight.

SOME GOOD ORDERS.

Potteries Have No Particular Cause For Complaint.

Some of the largest orders received in the city for months have been registered by local potteries within the last few days. One concern booked an order for 100 dinner sets, and another was asked by a customer to send him so many teas that he will not fill the order within the next few weeks. The demand for ware is increasing steadily, and the belief is widespread that it will continue.

Word from Trenton says that trade with the potteries there is picking up rapidly. Trenton potters have had even a harder time than the potters of East Liverpool.

IN A BAD WAY

Are a Number of Pavements in the City.

The thaw placed a number of pavements in miserable condition, and complaints last night were as thick as it was possible for them to be. One man, as he stepped on a sinking brick and felt the muddy water squirt up his trousers' leg, was heard to say something very wicked, while a crowd of small boys who had been watching that particular pavement laughed loud and long. These miserable pavements are not confined to any particular part of town, but incidents such as that noted above could have been witnessed last night in all parts of the city.

Paid Their Fines.

The remainder of the people who were implicated in the trouble at the Ohioville singing school called on the justice of the peace yesterday, and paid their fines.

EVANGELIST NAYLOR.

He Talked About the Pitfalls in Men's Lives.

The evangelist's subject last night was taken from the 40th Psalm, first, second and part of the third verse, as follows:

"I waited patiently for the Lord and he inclined unto me and heard my cry. He brought me up also out of an horrible pit, out of the miry clay, and set my feet upon a rock and established my goings. And he hath put a new song in my mouth, even praises unto our God."

The speaker dwelt upon the fact that there are great pitfalls in every man's life; pitfalls of sin and evil, to enter which may mean destruction, sorrow, and suffering in this life, and condemnation and woe in the life to come. He went on to show how the mercy of the great God brought David up out of this pit and placed his feet upon the solid rock, granting him the sunshine of his presence and putting songs of delight in his mouth. He then described the condition of the poor sinner of the present age, showing how God will, for Christ's sake, forgive him and bless him and put a new song in his mouth; a song so exquisite in its melody as to cast the efforts of all earthly singers completely in the shade; a song so full of love and pathos as to excel all the efforts of the angels, accompanied on the harp chords of heavenly instruments.

The service was intensely interesting, many persons standing at the close of the address and asking that the prayers of God's people might be given them, thus showing their keen desire to escape from the pit, the outlet of which leads to eternal desolation and eternal torment. Much good is being accomplished at the meetings conducted by Evangelist Naylor, in the name of the Master, giving God all the glory. The evangelist is intensely practical in his application of the Christ life to humanity on this earth, and he portrays this idea in words which bear no uncertain sound. He believes that a true Christian will carry his religion, the religion of Jesus, into his everyday life, bearing malice and hatred to no one, but hating sin intensely. He believes that Christ teaches that a man shall be honest and pay his debts; that he shall not be a backbiter, gossip or false friend, fair to a man's face and false to his back; that he will not be a winebibber, beer guzzler, gin drinker, whisky imbibor, or in fact connected in any way, directly or indirectly, with the infamous liquor traffic. He believes a Christian will be a man of clean hands and a pure heart. Hear him tonight. You will be welcome.

HE HAD A RAZOR.

But His Wife's Brother Stopped the Row.

It is alleged that a resident of Church alley chased his wife from home last night, brandishing a razor and threatening to cut her throat from ear to ear if she ever returned. The man was drunk, and his cries and loud talking aroused the brother of his wife, who was in another room, and the war at once took on another aspect. The brother, who happens to be a match for any ordinary man, took charge of the razor, promised the big brute a good thrashing if he did not change his ways, and saw that his sister was installed again in her own house.

NOTHING DEFINITE.

Christian Church Members Did Not Act.

The building committee of the Christian church held a meeting last evening at the residence of Emmitt Crites of Lincoln avenue to consider several sites they had in view. Owing to several members being absent, definite action was postponed until next Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the residence of C. C. Thompson, Cook street. It is understood that some definite action will be taken at this meeting.

WAITING FOR A CHANGE.

Nothing Will Be Done Until After the Line Is Sold.

Superintendent Andrews was asked yesterday afternoon if he had received any word as to what steps the street car company proposed to take toward extending their road to the corporation line. He replied: "I know nothing about it, but I don't suppose they will do anything until after the road changes hands."

A TELEPHONE CABLE

Will Be Stretched Across the Bridge Very Soon.

Superintendent of Construction Hall, of the telephone company, was in the city last evening making arrangements for putting the cable across the bridge. It will probably be a 20 wire cable, and work will be commenced at an early date.

WE GET ALL THE GAS

To Be Piped From the Alum Cliff Field.

MORE WELLS WILL BE DRILLED

And When Two More Are Added to the Number a Line Will Be Laid to the City. Two Companies After the Product of the Field.

The product of the Alum Cliff gas field will be piped to this city, and already the owners of the wells are considering offers for the fuel.

The project was carefully gone over by the interested parties, and it was decided that the field should be developed without delay. Two more wells will be drilled at once, and as soon as they come in, probably within two weeks after the pressure is known, work will be started on a pipe line to this city. Two companies have offered what is said to be a very good thing for the product of the wells, and the owners now think they have a valuable field. While it was not believed a short time ago that the showing of oil would amount to a great deal, the samples taken from the wells have been reported with such kind expressions that the value of the field is enhanced. The oil has been used for general lubricating purposes, and has been found to be near the top in point of excellence.

NO DEAL YESTERDAY.

The Toronto Pottery Purchase May Fall Through.

The story that the Toronto pottery would be purchased and put in operation by a company composed of East Liverpool men is not without a good deal of foundation, but the plant has not yet been bought. They are considering the matter and one of the interested parties was in Toronto yesterday, but his visit did not end with the purchase of the plant. It was authoritatively stated last night that nothing definite had yet developed, and it might not develop within the next few months.

MORE BAD MONEY.

Some of It Was Taken in the City Yesterday.

Some individual with a pocket full of bad money was abroad in the city last night, and succeeded in passing some of it without detection. The money is of the same kind circulated in Irondale and Wellsville last week, and it is believed the same gang is responsible. At least three bad half dollars were passed, one at a saloon, and the others in a grocery store. In the one instance the man bought a cigar, but in the other his identity was lost in a rush of customers.

ANOTHER CANDIDATE

Has Been Announced For Council in the Fourth.

It was stated on authority last night that Michael McGeever, of West End, would be a candidate for council from the Fourth ward. He is well known in that part of the city, and if opposed, will make a strong fight for the place.

Another candidate mentioned in the Fourth is James Cochran, the well known jiggerman employed at the Cartwright pottery. He has not yet given his consent to enter the race.

IN THE SWIM.

John H. Telford Would Be Postmaster at Beaver Falls.

Everybody who knows John H. Telford, the publisher of the Beaver Falls Tribune, will gladly wish him success in his candidacy for the postoffice at that place. Mr. Telford is an honest, hard working Republican whose efforts in behalf of the ticket are always productive of much good. If the appointment goes to a deserving man John Telford will be successful in his aspirations.

AN EARLY START.

The Epworth League Set the Date For Their Picnic.

The members of the Epworth league believe in getting an early start, and yesterday A. W. Ferren engaged Rock Point for Thursday, June 3, the day upon which their annual picnic will be held. Already the picnic resort has been engaged for the months of July and August, with scarcely a day open.

HOLINESS WARD HOME.

He Has Been In McKeesport, and Is Needed Elsewhere.

Holiness George Ward has returned from McKeesport, Pa., where he conducted meetings for two weeks. The people of Homestead, Pa., want him to come there Friday evening. He was asked if he would hold any meetings in the Diamond while at home, but replied: "Not unless the Lord calls me."

The Street Railway Will Be Sold Early In May.

ARRANGEMENTS ARE COMPLETED

The Road, All Real Estate, Motive Power, Electrical Appliances and Equipment Go Under the Sheriff's Hammer Two Months From Tomorrow

Lisbon, March 2.—[Special.]—Charles Brooks, of the firm of Squire, Sanders & Dempsey, of Cleveland, representing the Savings & Trust company, of that city, was here last evening when the final arrangements for the sale of the East Liverpool and Wellsville street railway were completed, and from present indications the road and all real estate, motive power, electrical appliances, etc., will go under the hammer Monday, May 3, from the door of the courthouse.

The decree taken in common pleas Dec. 28, renders judgment in favor of the Savings & Trust Co. for $288,439.27, and stipulates that the road shall be advertised in Cleveland, East Liverpool and Wellsville papers for a period of 60 days. SALUTED THE MAJOR.

East Palestine Was Brilliant With Red Fire.

EAST PALESTINE, March 1.—[Special.]—East Palestine greeted Major McKinley in old fashioned East Liverpool style last night. The remainder of the people who were implicated in the trouble at the Ohioville singing school called on the justice of the peace yesterday, and paid their fines.

EVANGELIST NAYLOR.

He Talked About the Pitfalls in Men's Lives.

The evangelist's subject last night was taken from the 40th Psalm, first, second and part of the third verse, as follows:

"I waited patiently for the Lord and he inclined unto me and heard my cry. He brought me up also out of an horrible pit, out of the miry clay, and set my feet upon a rock and established my goings. And he hath put a new song in my mouth, even praises unto our God."

The speaker dwelt upon the fact that there are great pitfalls in every man's life; pitfalls of sin and evil, to enter which may mean destruction, sorrow, and suffering in this life, and condemnation and woe in the life to come. He went on to show how the mercy of the great God brought David up out of this pit and placed his feet upon the solid rock, granting him the sunshine of his presence and putting songs of delight in his mouth. He then described the condition of the poor sinner of the present age, showing how God will, for Christ's sake, forgive him and bless him and put a new song in his mouth; a song so exquisite in its melody as to cast the efforts of all earthly singers completely in the shade; a song so full of love and pathos as to excel all the efforts of the angels, accompanied on the harp chords of heavenly instruments.

The service was intensely interesting, many persons standing at the close of the address and asking that the prayers of God's people might be given them, thus showing their keen desire to escape from the pit, the outlet of which leads to eternal desolation and eternal torment. Much good is being accomplished at the meetings conducted by Evangelist Naylor, in the name of the Master, giving God all the glory. The evangelist is intensely practical in his application of the Christ life to humanity on this earth, and he portrays this idea in words which bear no uncertain sound. He believes that a true Christian will carry his religion, the religion of Jesus, into his everyday life, bearing malice and hatred to no one, but hating sin intensely. He believes that Christ teaches that a man shall be honest and pay his debts; that he shall not be a backbiter, gossip or false friend, fair to a man's face and false to his back; that he will not be a winebibber, beer guzzler, gin drinker, whisky imbibor, or in fact connected in any way, directly or indirectly, with the infamous liquor traffic. He believes a Christian will be a man of clean hands and a pure heart. Hear him tonight. You will be welcome.

HE HAD A RAZOR.

But His Wife's Brother Stopped the Row.

It is alleged that a resident of Church alley chased his wife from home last night, brandishing a razor and threatening to cut her throat from ear to ear if she ever returned. The man was drunk, and his cries and loud talking aroused the brother of his wife, who was in another room, and the war at once took on another aspect. The brother, who happens to be a match for any ordinary man, took charge of the razor, promised the big brute a good thrashing if he did not change his ways, and saw that his sister was installed again in her own house.

NOTHING DEFINITE.

Christian Church Members Did Not Act.

The building committee of the Christian church held a meeting last evening at the residence of Emmitt Crites of Lincoln avenue to consider several sites they had in view. Owing to several members being absent, definite action was postponed until next Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the residence of C. C. Thompson, Cook street. It is understood that some definite action will be taken at this meeting.

WAITING FOR A CHANGE.

Nothing Will Be Done Until After the Line Is Sold.

Superintendent Andrews was asked yesterday afternoon if he had received any word as to what steps the street car company proposed to take toward extending their road to the corporation line. He replied: "I know nothing about it, but I don't suppose they will do anything until after the road changes hands."

A TELEPHONE CABLE

Will Be Stretched Across the Bridge Very Soon.

Superintendent of Construction Hall, of the telephone company, was in the city last evening making arrangements for putting the cable across the bridge. It will probably be a 20 wire cable, and work will be commenced at an early date.

WE GET ALL THE GAS

To Be Piped From the Alum Cliff Field.

MORE WELLS WILL BE DRILLED

And When Two More Are Added to the Number a Line Will Be Laid to the City. Two Companies After the Product of the Field.

The product of the Alum Cliff gas field will be piped to this city, and already the owners of the wells are considering offers for the fuel.

The project was carefully gone over by the interested parties, and it was decided that the field should be developed without delay. Two more wells will be drilled at once, and as soon as they come in, probably within two weeks after the pressure is known, work will be started on a pipe line to this city. Two companies have offered what is said to be a very good thing for the product of the wells, and the owners now think they have a valuable field. While it was not believed a short time ago that the showing of oil would amount to a great deal, the samples taken from the wells have been reported with such kind expressions that the value of the field is enhanced. The oil has been used for general lubricating purposes, and has been found to be near the top in point of excellence.

The Toronto Pottery Purchase May Fall Through.

The story that the Toronto pottery would be purchased and put in operation by a company composed of East Liverpool men is not without a good deal of foundation, but the plant has not yet been bought. They are considering the matter and one of the interested parties was in Toronto yesterday, but his visit did not end with the purchase of the plant. It was authoritatively stated last night that nothing definite had yet developed, and it might not develop within the next few months.

MORE BAD MONEY.

Some of It Was Taken In the City Yesterday.

Some individual with a pocket full of bad money was abroad in the city last night, and succeeded in passing some of it without detection. The money is of the same kind circulated in Irondale and Wellsville last week, and it is believed the same gang is responsible. At least three bad half dollars were passed, one at a saloon, and the others in a grocery store. In the one instance the man bought a cigar, but in the other his identity was lost in a rush of customers.

ANOTHER CANDIDATE

Has Been Announced For Council in the Fourth.

It was stated on authority last night that Michael McGeevor, of West End, would be a candidate for council from the Fourth ward. He is well known in that part of the city, and if opposed, will make a strong fight for the place.

Another candidate mentioned in the Fourth is James Cochran, the well known jugglerman employed at the Cartwright pottery. He has not yet given his consent to enter the race.

IN THE SWIM.

John H. Telford Would Be Postmaster at Beaver Falls.

Everybody who knows John H. Telford, the publisher of the Beaver Falls Tribune, will gladly wish him success in his candidacy for the postoffice at that place. Mr. Telford is an honest, hard working Republican whose efforts in behalf of the ticket are always productive of much good. If the appointment goes to a deserving man John Telford will be successful in his aspirations.

AN EARLY START.

The Epworth League Set the Date For Their Picnic.

The members of the Epworth league believe in getting an early start, and yesterday A. W. Ferren engaged Rock Point for Thursday, June 3, the day upon which their annual picnic will be held. Already the picnic resort has been engaged for the months of July and August, with scarcely a day open.

HOLINESS WARD HOME.

He Has Been In McKeesport, and Is Needed Elsewhere.

Holiness George Ward has returned from McKeesport, Pa., where he conducted meetings for two weeks. The people of Homestead, Pa., want him to come there Friday evening. He was asked if he would hold any meetings in the Diamond while at home, but replied: "Not unless the Lord calls me."

this land "of the people, by the people and for the people," is followed, sooner or later, by the absolute downfall and discomfiture of the would-be tyrants and dictators. You can fool all of the Republican voters some of the time; you can fool some of the time; but in the name of common manhood and clean politics, you can't fool all of the Republican voters all of the time. The News Review is Republican from center to circumference, loving the grand old party of the people with a great love; but it is a clean Republicanism, which hates the reign of dirty and foul politics and trickery; a foulness which threatens the very heart strings and life of the party of Lincoln, Grant and McKinley. A. H. McCoy was our choice for the state senate. We believed him to be an honest, honorable, manly and courageous man, hating trickery, foulness, cunning and deceit, or he never could have had the backing of this paper. We believe in him still. We believe that his withdrawal will be fully explained at the proper time, and when it will do the most lasting and effectual good for the mass of clean Republicans.

A DINNER TO SHERMAN.

Ohio Delegation Did the New Premier Great Honor.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—A dinner was given to Senator Sherman by the Ohio delegation in congress at the Cochran hotel last night at which was present representative Republicans of that state. The dinner took on the form of a harmony gathering and what differences may have existed among the Republican leaders of Ohio are believed to have been smoothed over by the gathering to do honor to the veteran senator.

The dinner was given to Mr. Sherman by the 19 Republican members in the Ohio delegation in the house and the four Republican members-elect, Messrs. Shattuck, Brown, Weaver and Librand. Those invited to attend as special guests included Governor Bushnell of Ohio, Hon. Mark Hanna, the chairman of the national Republican committee; ex-Representative Thompson of Ohio, Myron T. Herrick of Cleveland, the Hon. Benjamin Butterworth, Murat Halstead, Dr. John D. Jones of Cincinnati and a number of representatives of Ohio newspapers. General Grosvener sat at the head of the table with Senator Sherman and Mr. Hanna on his right and Governor Bushnell and Mr. Halstead on his left.

The dining table was arranged in a very tasteful manner. Beautiful floral and electrical effects added their charm. At the head of the table were a number of felicitous speeches, those making remarks including Messrs. Sherman, Bushnell, Hanna, Halstead and Northway. Much regret was expressed at the absence of Senator-elect Foraker, who was unavoidably detained by an important law case at Cincinnati in which he is interested.

In his remarks Mr. Sherman spoke of the factional differences in Ohio politics and referred to the fact that in his time in the senate he had been associated with a Democratic colleague, but he now congratulated the state that it would soon have two full-fledged, full-grown Republican senators. As for money he said we must have the best possible. He came out for a vigorous foreign policy and said we intend to protect our citizens, whether they be on land or sea. We glory, he said, to build up among our fellow republicans of our own, and he expressed the opinion that the time was not far distant, when the whole Western hemisphere would be under Republican form of government. The United States was the beacon light of the world, and he believed the Republican countries would march step by step to the music of the right to govern themselves.

Mr. Halstead spoke particularly about Senator Sherman's services to the country in war times and said that he had given the country a sound currency while a member of the cabinet of President Hayes. Governor Bushnell referred to the pride felt by Ohioans in the long and honorable career of Mr. Sherman, and in the satisfaction felt at his selection as the head of the state department. Mr. Hanna spoke in terms of praise of Senator Sherman, of the confidence which he would bring to the new administration and of the delight felt by Ohioans in the selection of a man from their state for the great office of president. In conclusion he pledged himself to do whatever is in his power for the success of the new administration and the prosperity of the country. Remarks were also made by Messrs. Kerr, Taylor and Bromwell.

LEE VERY INDIGNANT.

Correspondence Given to the Senate Reveals It.

AMERICANS BRUTALLY TREATED.

The Brave Consul General Got Tired of the Actions of the Bloodthirsty Spaniards—He Wanted His Demands Backed Up by Warships.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—President Cleveland has sent to the senate correspondence relating to American citizens arrested in Cuba. The most important are the telegrams in the case of Charles Scott, which are as follows, being telegrams sent by Consul General Fitzhugh Lee to the state department. No replies from the state department are given in this case.

On February 20 Mr. Lee telegraphed as follows to the state department: "Charles Scott, a citizen of the United States arrested a Regio. No charge given. Been without communication jail Havana 264 hours. Cannot stand another Ruiz murder and have demanded his release. How many war vessels at Key West, or within reach, and will they be ordered here at once if necessary to sustain demand."

On the 23d he said in a cable message: "Situation simple. Experience at Guanabacoa made it my duty to demand, before too late, that another American who had been incommunicado 24 hours, be released from said incommunicado, and did so in court terms. If you support it, Scott is released. If you do not I must depart. All others so released the trouble will terminate. If you do not I must depart. All others so released the trouble will terminate. If you do not I must depart. All others so released the trouble will terminate."

Later on the same day, the 23d ult., Mr. Lee wired: "Demand complied with. Scott released from incommunicado today on demand. He will be in solitary confinement in cell 5 feet by 11; damp; water on bottom of cell. Not allowed anything to sleep on or chair. Discharges of the body removed once in five days. Was charged with having Cuban postage stamps in the house. Scott says he went always 12 hours without water; once two days. He was employee of American gas company."

The most voluminous correspondence is that in the case of Sylvester Seovel, correspondent of the New York World, who was arrested on Feb. 5. The documents furnished show that Mr. Lee promptly notified the state department and that Mr. Olney responded immediately directing him to see that all of Seovel's rights as an American citizen were protected. The letters and telegrams in this case run from the 5th to the 19th of February, when Mr. Lee informed the department that a competent lawyer had been secured to defend Seovel. He had said previously that he did not anticipate serious trouble in this case, but later changed his opinion. "It is supposed Seovel bore incriminating papers which gives the case a more serious aspect."

On Feb. 11 General Lee said that Seovel was in a well ventilated cell and that he had good food and a bed at Sancti Spiritus, to which he added: "Treaty rights have been respected. Is in hands civil jurisdiction. I have sent messenger to report case." General Lee tried to have Seovel removed from Sancti Spiritus to Havana, but failed. The remaining case covered is that of F. J. Casanas, arrested Feb. 13, but on what charge does not appear. General Lee's first information to the state department was contained in a telegram of Feb. 17. In this dispatch he which he the information of the arrest, and says the consul's report will follow, adding: "Proceedings a great outrage. Similar cases here and elsewhere on the island. Redress can be obtained here."

On the 25th General Lee stated in reply to a message from the state department that Casanas had resided at Sagua when arrested and that he had registered at Havana as an American in 1872.

LEE STILL DETERMINED.

Sanguitully Details a Conversation With the Consul General.

TAMPA, Fla., March 2.—Julio Sanguitully in an interview here, said: "I had the pleasure of a long talk with General Lee before leaving Havana. He said after thoroughly understanding matters he had made up his mind to demand the freedom of every American now a prisoner in Cuba without just cause, but that he must have warships to back up his demands."

"He had made his intentions known to Olney, he said, and had sent his resignation to go into effect if the request was not granted. As a matter of courtesy he was waiting now for the new administration and would tell it the same thing. If not accorded he would return at once, go before the senate and tell them all and show them whose fault it was that nothing has been done."

Weyler to Return to Havana.

HAVANA, March 2.—Captain General Weyler, who has been at Palcatas, province of Santa Clara, has telegraphed to Admiral Navarro in command of the naval forces, asking him to send the Spanish cruiser Legazpi to Calabien, the port of remedies on the northern coast of Santa Clara. From Palcatas a railroad runs to Calabien and it is believed that the captain general intends to return to Havana.

Fired on by Spanish Warship.

NEW YORK, March 2.—The Door Isle schooner S. G. Harkell, which has arrived here, reports that she was fired upon by a Spanish man-of-war on the night of Feb. 7, off the San Juan river, Cuba, evidently being mistaken for a filibuster.

Trouble With Indians Feared.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 2.—The murder of a Pinto Indian man near Badagad, on the Colorado desert, in Southern California, by a Mexican, has aroused the red men and serious trouble is feared.

CLEVELAND DELAYS ACTION.

Immigration Bill Will Become a Law Tomorrow, If Not Acted Upon.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—The president has one more day to devote to the consideration of the immigration bill. He evidently is giving a large share of his attention to this important measure. Secretary Carlisle first had the bill, coming to him in the regular routine as the immigration bureau is in his department.

He reported upon it and since the measure came back to the White House, the president has called Secretary Olney into consultation, presumably to make sure of its effect upon existing treaty stipulations. If the bill is not signed or vetoed before tonight it will become a law tomorrow morning.

The Senate Doing Earnest Work.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—The senate pressed steadily forward on the appropriation bills. No further apprehension is felt as to the passage of these measures. The naval bill brought out a hot contest on the price of armor plate and the establishment of a government armor factory. The senate committee had recommended a maximum price of $400 per ton for armor. Mr. Chandler endeavored to have the price fixed at $300. The bill was laid aside for an executive session.

A Row in the Senate.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—Senator Tillman of South Carolina provoked a turbulent scene in the senate last night when he charged that the armor plate manufacturers had their paid agents in that body, who were robbing the government. The charge was resented by Senator Hawley of Connecticut, whereupon Mr. Tillman replied that "the galled jade winces" and it looked for a time as though a personal conflict was imminent, until Mr. Hawley was escorted to the cloakroom.

All Condemned Prizefighting.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—The bill to prohibit the transmission of detailed accounts of prizefights by mail or telegraph was discussed in the house. Prizefighting was denounced on all sides and the advocates of the bill insisted that the "sickening details" should be suppressed in the interest of good morals. But the bill met with most strenuous opposition on the ground that it would tend to establish a censorship of the press and went over.

Three Friends' Decision Reversed.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—The United States supreme court reversed the decision of the district court of Florida in the Three Friends case, sustaining the contention of the government. The court was also ordered to resume custody of the steamer.

Koerner Sentenced to Die.

NEW YORK, March 2.—William Jay Koerner, who was convicted of the murder of Rose A. Redgate, has been sentenced to be electrocuted during the week of April 19. Koerner is a newspaper artist and formerly resided in Pittsburg.

Street Car Rolled Over.

MILWAUKEE, March 2.—An electric car on the South Milwaukee line capsized, rolling over and over down a grade. Of the 18 passengers E. E. Cook of the Milwaukee Sentinel is thought to have a fractured skull.

The Weather.

Threatening, with light rain or snow; colder; southerly winds, shifting to northerly.

THE MARKETS.

PITTSBURGH, March 1.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., TUESDAY, MARCH 2

Mr. Cleveland only signs the immigration bill before he retires, his friends might think there was some excuse for his official existence.

The gentlemen who will sit around the long table when President McKinley calls his advisers together, are a brainy lot, and there is reason to believe that the coming administration will be one of which the party can be proud.

SOME Republican editors are manifesting some uneasiness because Dan Mc-

Conville, of Steubenville, is rushing up and down the state, building fences for

John R. McClain. This alarm is needless, for we all know Dan in a political way is harmless.

GREAT stress should be laid on the fact that none but known Republicans are to vote at the primaries. Too many Democrats have in the past aided in nominating Republican candidates, and then devoted some time in endeavoring to defeat them.

WHAT OF COUNCIL?

There is ample room for good men in council. They are needed to conduct the business of the city. Less than three weeks remain until the primaries, and not a name has been officially anounced if we except those members who seek re-election? Does that look as though East Liverpool was sufficiently interested in its own business? Does that show that property owners and taxpayers are determined to look after their own interests? Does that put confidence into timid ones who might otherwise make the race? Come out.

If there are men in the city who want it conducted on business principles, let them announce their candidacy to council, and announce it at once.

NOT SO BAD.

When it is remembered that the official presence of Mr. Cleveland has been a constant menace to the enactment of laws by the Republicans in congress, the record of the congress about to die is very good. It has been the aim to keep down appropriations, and since that policy was anounced it has been followed closely.

While the appropriations provide for the expenditure of millions of dollars, no

new work was taken up, and the money will be applied to furthering the work already in hand. The cry that congress has been extravagant cannot be applied to this session any more than to many others. The needs of the country have been followed, and provision made to fill them as they should be filled. The man with a pet project found few congressmen to bear his plea for consideration this time, and although a great number of bills of the usual character were dumped into the hopper, few there were that got beyond the stated committee. It was intended that the house should do little else than work upon appropriations, and that intention was not forgotten.

A. H. MCCOY.

The withdrawal of A. H. McCoy from the senatorial contest came to a host of his friends and supporters like a thunder clap out of a clear and cloudless sky.

Great pressure—mighty pressure—has been brought to bear upon A. H. ever since last Wednesday morning.

This is the certain knowledge of the NEWS REVIEW. Yesterday morning our friend and comrade came to East

Liverpool with the avowed intention of going to Lisbon for the earnest prosecution of his campaign.

He was closeted for some hours with local politicians, and finally his withdrawal was announced, as given in these columns. The power which caused this withdrawal was of infinitely greater strength than that possessed by petty local politicians, although, in their egotism and vanity,

they will attempt to pose as potentates, kingdoms and dictators. Arrogance and despotism, in this land of the masses,

this land "of the people, by the people and for the people," is followed, sooner or later, by the absolute downfall and discomfiture of the would-be tyrants and dictators. You can fool all of the Republican voters some of the time;

but in the name of common manhood and clean politics, you can't fool all of the Republican voters all of the time.

The NEWS REVIEW is Republican from center to circumference, loving the grand old party of the people with a great love;

but it is a clean Republicanism, which hates the reign of dirty and foul politics and trickery; a foulness which threatens the very heart strings and life of the party of Lincoln, Grant and McKinley.

A. H. McCoy was our choice for the state senate. We believed him to be an honest, honorable, manly and courageous man, hating trickery, foulness, concuping and deceit, or he never could have had the backing of this paper. We believe in him still. We believe that his withdrawal will be fully explained at the proper time, and when it will do the most lasting and effectual good for the mass of clean Republicans.

A DINNER TO SHERMAN.

Ohio Delegation Did the New Premier

Great Honor.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—A dinner was given to Senator Sherman by the Ohio delegation in congress at the Cochran hotel last night at which was present representative Republicans of that state. The dinner took on the form of a harmony gathering and whatever differences may have existed

among the Republican leaders of Ohio

are believed to have been smoothed over by the gathering to do honor to the veteran senator.

The dinner was given to Mr. Sherman by the 19 Republican members in the Ohio delegation in the house and the four Republican members-elect.

Messrs. Shattuck, Brown, Weaver and Librand. Those invited to attend as special guests included Governor Bushnell of Ohio, Hon. Mark Hanna, the chairman of the national Republican committee; ex-Representative Thompson of Ohio, Myron T. Herrick of Cleveland, the Hon. Benjamin D. Jones of Cincinnati and a number of representatives of Ohio newspapers.

General Grosvenor sat at the head of the table with Senator Sherman and

Mr. Hanna on his right and Governor

The dinner table was arranged in a very tasteful manner. Beautiful floral and electrical effects added their charm.

After the menu there were a number of felicitous speeches, those making references to the dinner and the presence of the senator-elect.

After the dinner was over, the representatives of the Ohio press and the Ohio delegation in congress remained in the hall and conferred with Senator Sherman.

As for the dinner, it was a most successful one, and the Ohio delegation in congress and the Ohio press

remained in the hall

Senator Sherman.

As for the dinner,

it was a most successful one, and the

LEE VERY INDIGNANT.

Correspondence Given to the Senate Reveals It.

AMERICANS BRUTALLY TREATED.

The Brave Consul General Got Tired of the Actions of the Bloodthirsty Spaniards—He Wanted His Demands Backed

Up by Warships.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—President

Cleveland has sent to the senate correspondence relating to American citizens arrested in Cuba. The most important are the telegrams in the case of Charles

Scott, which are as follows, being telegrams sent by Consul General Fitzgugh to the state department. No responses from the state department are given in this case.

On February 20 Mr. Lee telegraphed

as follows to the state department:

"Charles Scott, a citizen of the United States arrested at Regio. No charge given. Been without communication for 24 hours. Cannot stand any longer. How many war vessels at Key West, or within reach, and will they be ordered here at once if necessary to sustain demand?"

On the 23d he said in a cable message:

"Situation simple. Experience at Guanabacoa made it my duty to demand, before too late, that another

American who had been incommunicated 24 hours, be released from the solitary confinement in cell 5 feet by 11 feet; water on bottom of cell. Not allowed anything to sleep on or chair.

Discharges of the body removed once in five days. Charged with having Cuban postage stamps in the house.

Scott says he went always 12 hours without water; once two days. He was employed of American gas company."

The most voluminous correspondence is that in the case of Sylvester Seovel, correspondent of the New York World, who was arrested on Feb. 5. The documents furnished show that Mr.

Lee promptly notified the state department and that Mr. Olney responded immediately directing him to see that all of Seovel's rights as an American citizen were protected. The letters and telegrams in this case run from the 5th to the 19th of February, when Mr. Lee informed the department that a competent lawyer had been secured to defend

Seovel. He had said previously that he did not anticipate serious trouble in this case, but later changed his opinion.

"It is supposed Seovel bore incriminating papers which gives the case a more serious aspect."

On Feb. 11 General Lee said that

Seovel was in a well ventilated cell and that he had good food and a bed

at Sancti Spiritus, to which he added:

"Treaty rights have been respected.

Is in hands civil jurisdiction. I have sent messenger to report case."

General Lee tried to have Seovel removed from Sancti Spiritus to Havana, but failed.

The remaining case covered is that of F. J. Casano, arrested Feb. 13, but on what charge does not appear. General

Lee's first information to the state department was contained in a telegram of Feb. 17. In this dispatch he conveys the information of the arrest, which he says took place at Sagua and says the consul's report will follow, adding:

"Proceedings a great outflow. Similar cases here and elsewhere on the island.

Redress can be obtained here."

On the 25th General Lee stated in reply to a message from the state department that Casano had resided at Sagua when arrested and that he had registered at Havana as an American in 1872.

LEE STILL DETERMINED.

NOW IN WASHINGTON.

McKinley Reached the National Capital at 11 A. M.

A GREAT OVATION EN ROUTE.

Crowds Turned Out at Different Stations and Chanted the Inaugural Train—The President-Elect's Neighbors Gave Him a Great Demonstration.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—The special train bearing President-elect McKinley and party arrived here at 11 o'clock. They were escorted to the Ebbitt House, where they are now stopping. The president-elect and Mrs. McKinley will dine with President and Mrs. Cleveland at the White House tonight. There were only three stops made between this city and Pittsburg, Altoona, Harrisburg and Baltimore.

Altoona was reached at 3:05 and Harrisburg at 6:45. From the latter place the train was cheered at every station. At Baltimore, which was reached at 9:40, there was an immense demonstration.

CANTON, O., March 2.—It was indeed a beautiful and impressive scene that Canton presented last evening, when her citizens bid farewell to Major and Mrs. McKinley as they entered the special train in waiting to convey them to Washington. The people of the city seemed to have turned out en masse to do honor to the distinguished neighbors and friends who so long have been regarded with the greatest love and esteem and who by the honors they have won in the nation have done so much to attract favorable attention to Canton. No lines were drawn in the large concourse of people which followed the McKinley carriage to the train, and surrounded the station to mingle their cheers in the mighty round which echoed above the din of the train as it disappeared in the east.

Young and old, rich and poor, richly gown and humbly-clad, lowly and affluent; people of all political convictions, of all creeds and of all social planes touched elbows and jostled each other about in the mighty throng which surrounded the Pennsylvania station, each seeking some point of vantage for a last look at the speeding party, and each good-natured and indifferent to the personal discomfort experienced through the movements of others.

The day dawned with that blustery quality of March weather which brooks no good to proarranged programs. Blasts of wind that made the air seem far colder than the thermometers registered were followed by fitful flurries of snow and they in turn by threats of sleet and icy rainfall. But as the day advanced the weather promises of the morning were not redeemed. The temperature was a decided moderation in the temperature, with now and then a ray of sunshine, and by noon all traces of snow had disappeared. There was still a suggestion of rain, but it was not strong and the committees in charge of the demonstration took heart from the assurance that whatsoever other conditions might prevail, the temperature would be mild and the people of the city would be able to gratify their repeated wishes to extend some concerted farewell demonstration to the President-elect and his wife.

It was not until 6 o'clock last evening that the demonstration proper began with the organization of the escort. But long before that time the uptown streets began to fill with people waiting curiously and not impatiently for the parade. Others were lingering about the station, anxious to catch a glimpse of or mayhap make an inspection of the handsome cars which they have read for days. But the train was not long in the station nor was there opportunity for more than a cursory review. It arrived from Alliance yards about 5:30 o'clock, where the cars were submitted to a careful inspection and test during the day.

In the cab of the engine when the train left Canton Henry Hickel was at the throttle and A. L. Strawn looked after the fire. The train crew was completed with S. T. Bower, conductor; James Ruey, baggage master; A. F. King and R. B. Stewart, brakemen.

Immediately back of the engine is combination car No. 4810 with smoking apartments, and back of it the dining car. Three Pullmans, Elkon, Arden and Delphos, follow in the order named. Then comes private car No. 505 and private car No. 38 in the rear. Car No. 38 is the one occupied by the president-elect and Mrs. McKinley. It is a private car without a name save that it is known all over the Panhandle system as No. 38. The walls in it are of white oak planked solid instead of the usual studding.

If it should roll down an embankment, the sides would not break and it would resist almost any shock in a collision. The top is a double frame work of steel and the ceiling is thoroughly cushioned. The floor is four thicknesses of heavy white oak. The entire car is a huge indestructible box. The chief luxury of the interior is the perfect arrangement of everything pertaining to human effort. It has an old-fashioned log fireplace and two palatial bedrooms and a bath opening from each chamber. There is a magnificent silver service and a large collection of rare china.

This, as well as other cars, has been fully decorated with cut flowers, potted plants and tropical exotics, and every possible convenience for the comfort of the party is provided.

A party of officers of the Pennsylvania railroad system arrived in the city in General Manager L. F. Loree's private car. In the party were L. F. Loree, Charles Watts, general superintendent.

As the train pulled out from the station amid a salute of cannon fired by Mr. John C. Dueber, at Duober Heights, it was greeted by cheers from the assembled multitude.

Following are the cars of the inaugural train, with occupants:

President's car, No. 38—Major McKinley, Mrs. McKinley, Mrs. Maria Saxton, who will be Mrs. McKinley's companion in the White House; Captain and Mrs. L. M. McWilliams of Cazo, cousins of Mrs. McKinley; Clara Thorein, Mrs. McKinley's maid. Mother McKinley's car, No. 505—Mrs. Nancy Allison McKinley, the mother of the president-elect; Miss Helen Mc-Kinley, sister of the president-elect; Mr. and Mrs. George B. Morse of San Francisco, Mrs. Morse being a niece of Major McKinley; Mrs. James McKinley, Mrs. Abner Osborne and Mrs. Clarence Shaffer of Cleveland.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Barber's car—Mr. and Mrs. M. Barber, Mrs. Barber being Mrs. McKinley's sister; Mr. and Mrs. Duncan of Cleveland, cousins of the president-elect; W. McKinley Barber, James Barber, Miss Ida Barber, Captain and Mrs. H. O. S. Heistand, Mr. and Mrs. Seward Bowman, of Elyria, O.; George Saxton, a brother of Mrs. McKinley; Mr. Will Duncan, Miss Sarah Duncan, of Cleveland; Joseph P. Smith, of Urbana, O.; Mrs. George B. Street, of Canton; Mr. B. L. McKinley, San Francisco.

Escort committee car "Arden"—Colonel G. A. Garretson, Henry Crouse, Mr. Webb C. Hayes, of Cleveland; Colonel and Mrs. John N. Taylor, of East Liverpool, O.; Minnie Lancroft, George W. Floyd, Dr. C. E. Manchester, pastor of the president-elect and wife; Dr. T. H. Phillips, physician to the McKinleys; Private Secretary James Boyle and wife.

Press car—M. A. Havens, W. S. Lloyd, A. N. Howells, E. C. Howland, C. M. Pepper, F. B. Loomis, R. P. Skinner, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Bailey, George H. Freese, Dr. William Shaw, Bowen, F. B. Gessner, G. E. McMurray, Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Greenwell, H. C. March, L. E. Reed.

Promptly at 6 last evening the bands, military, clubs and citizens began to organize in the city hall square. Captain Harry Freese, who commanded the famous Canton troop during the campaign, was chief marshal and Captain H. L. Kuhns, his chief of staff. They soon brought order out of chaos, the assembled multitude and a more devoted escort man never had than that which shortly before 7 o'clock marched to the McKinley home. A platoon of white-gloved policemen headed the line and back of it came the Canton troops. This is an organization of nearly 100 representative citizens, organized early in the campaign, to receive, escort and otherwise entertain the visiting delegations. They wore military coats, broad-brimmed hats, top boots, light-colored gaudy and are all well-mounted and well-drilled in cavalry tactics. The troop leaves for Washington today and will participate in the inaugural parade.

Following the troop came Canton's famous Grand Army band. This in turn was followed by the Third battalion, Eighth regiment, Ohio national guard. This regiment was to have been honorary escort to the president-elect on the trip to Washington, and from the capital station to the hotel, but the failure to secure satisfactory railroad arrangements prevented this as well as other Ohio military organizations to join in the inaugural demonstration. Three companies, a signal and a hospital corps constitute the battalion. In the order named were the Canton Business Men's association, Grand Army posts, old soldiers, the First Ward Republican club, of which Major McKinley is a member; the Second Ward Republican club, other clubs and societies and unorganized citizens of Canton, Massillon and other surrounding towns.

Thus organized, the column marched through the public square and up Market Street hill, passing the McKinley house and then countermarching on Market street. When the Business Men's association was opposite the McKinley gate, the column halted and waited for Major and Mrs. McKinley and their attendants to enter the carriages in waiting. This carriage was drawn by four splendidly caparisoned horses and around it the members of the Canton Business Men's association stationed themselves as a guard of honor. Two mounted aides rode abreast of the carriage and the business men completed the hollow square in which the carriage moved.

The McKinley arch just at the foot of Market street hill was illuminated as darkness fell over the city and shone resplendent as the column marched under it, going to and from the McKinley house. Hundreds of tri-colored incandescent lights sent their soft rays far along the street on either side and made bright for the time the decorations stately, now wasted by the weather. It was probably illuminated for the last time last night, and the marchers as they passed looked backward for a last glimpse of what is now the most conspicuous reminder of the exciting campaign in Canton last fall, in which hundreds of thousands of people from all quarters of the country participated. It will be with regret that the razing of this structure will be viewed by Cantonians.

There was no detour from the direct route to the station made by the column. All along the line the carriage containing the president-elect and wife was kept in a halo of brilliant light from flambeaux, emitted lurid red rays, replaced from time to time by light from colored fires were being burned dimly. At various points along the line colored fires were being burned and though there was no organized effort in that line, individuals at various places sent sky rockets and Roman candles whizzing through the air. As the head of the column reached the train and halted, the rear pushed forward and the crowds from the sidewalks mingled with the marchers, until the platform and surrounding streets were filled with a seething, surging mass of humanity, each striving heroically to get nearest the point where the ally to get nearest would be last seen and president-elect for a last handshake, although the committee had arranged that there should be none of this.

Amid cheers and hurrahs from thousands of throats, which all but drowned out the melodious strains of the bands, the McKinley special steamed out of the Canton station at 7:27 p. m., just a moment or two before a slight shower set in, but not in time to interfere with the hearty reception Cantonians had arranged to her distinguished departing guests. The crowd about the station was almost impenetrable and never equalled before in Canton. It was not until a detachment of escort had ridden ahead and opened the way that the carriage containing Major and Mrs. McKinley could approach the station. As the party approached the station those on the outside of the crowd sent up a cheer. It was taken up by those nearer the train and grew in volume until it became fairly deafening. The cheering was renewed when the major appeared on the car platform with Mrs. McKinley and bowed to the crowd. When the train and bowed to the crowd, he cheering had sufficiently subsided, he spoke a few words of farewell, with deep feeling. Thousands in the crowd were much affected by the parting. Major McKinley on leaving Canton spoke from the rear of the car to the crowd as follows:

"My neighbors and friends and fellow citizens: On the eve of departure to the seat of government, soon to assume the duties of an arduous responsibility as great as can devolve upon any man, nothing could give me greater pleasure than this farewell greeting—this evidence of your friendship and sympathy—your good will, and I am sure, the prayers of all the people with whom I have lived so long and whose confidence and esteem are dearer to me than any other earthly honors.

"To all of us the future is as a sealed book; but if I can, by official act, or administration, or utterance, in any degree add to the prosperity of our beloved country and the comfort and well being of our splendid citizenship, I will devote the best and most unselfish efforts of my life. The assumption of the chief magistracy is of such a grave importance that partisanship cannot blind the judgement or accept any other considerations but the public good of all in every party and every section.

"With this thought uppermost in my mind, I reluctantly take leave of my friends and my neighbors, cherishing in my heart the sweetest memories and the tenderest thoughts of my old home—my home now, and I trust, my home hereafter, so long as I live. I thank you and bid you all goodbye."

McKinley special ran on a modern schedule in deference to the wishes of Major McKinley and his aged mother and made but a few stops. At Louisville a large crowd of considerable size was gathered on the station platform, and as the train whirled by loud and vociferous cheers from many lusty throats echoed above the noise of the cars.

At Alliance there was a large crowd at the station. This is the location of Mt. Union college of which Major McKinley is a director, and the college boys were out in force to greet him. The college yell was heard clear and distinct above the cheers from hundreds of others.

When Major McKinley bowed his acknowledgements to the great throng at Canton station he stepped inside the car where the cheerful grate fire greeted him and he found his wife almost cushioned in flowers. On a table near the grate was a goldplated horseshoe on a miniature metal easel. It was a rusty iron shoe picked up by City Clerk Howard Burgess of Cleveland on the way to Cleveland station before Chairman Hanna started on his trip to St. Louis. It was then tied to the back of the car, but has since been goldplated. Shortly after the train pulled out of Canton Mother McKinley, 88 years old, passed back from her car, next in front, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Osborne of Cleveland, nearly as old, and Mrs. Major McKinley's sister, Mrs. Marshall Barber. They added their congratulations, but formed a memorable and picturesque scene as they sat about the grate fire. Before the train reached Salem, Captain and Mrs. McWilliams of Chicago, General Manager Loree and Mrs. Saxton joined the group.

Pittsburg, March 2.—The 100 miles run to Pittsburg was an uninterrupted succession of ovations, although the train has not stopped until Pittsburg station at any point but a water tank. At Alliance railroad and shop people cheered as Mr. McKinley again appeared on the platform and waved his hat as the train sped by. Mr. Webb Hayes, of Cleveland, son of ex-President Hayes, of the escort committee, at some stations stood by the major, but at many stations he appeared alone, springing quickly from his chair, ever alert to return the compliment of the ovation with his acknowledgements.

Beaver Falls, New Brighton and Rochester are grouped about Beaver, Senator Quay's home, and at these points acres of people had gathered about the stations and as the president-elect appeared there were fireworks and whistles and other demonstrations. At Pittsburg the major was greeted by an enormous crowd. He appeared on the platform and bowed his acknowledgements to the great cheering of the crowd.

MANY VISITORS ARRIVING.

Major McKinley Decides Where He Will Attend Church.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—The railroads are pouring inaugural visitors into town and with bunting flaring from innumerable windows the city is fairly alive to the fact that inauguration day is at hand.

Should the estimates of the several railways running into Washington hold good there will be a crowd of 225,000 strangers in the city on March 4.

Among the arrival were Governor Hastings and staff of Pennsylvania, who put up at the Metropolitan.

Mrs. Cleveland returned from Princeton last evening and will be at the White House till the evening of March 4, to assist Mr. Cleveland in social functions.

The interesting and somewhat delicate question of what church will have the honor of entertaining President McKinley during the coming four years has been settled in favor of the Foundry M. E. church, at Fourteenth and G streets, where he worshipped during his last term of congress.

Gage Entertained at a Dinner.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—Hon. Lyman E. Gage of Chicago and Mrs. Gage were entertained at a dinner by Mr. Thomas Bryan of this city, with whom they are staying temporarily. The only other guests were Secretary and Mrs. Carlisle. The dinner was an informal affair and was intended to give the incoming secretary and Mrs. Gage an opportunity to meet Mr. and Mrs. Carlisle.

Pope's Anniversary Coronation.

ROME, March 2.—The anniversary of the coronation of the pope was duly celebrated yesterday. His holiness, who was in excellent health, received the cardinals and bishops and delivered an address, which was a paraphrase of last June's encyclical.

KNOXVILLE, March 2.—The Citizens' railway commenced tearing up tracks on Depot street and a fight between city and county officials was precipitated. One laborer was probably fatally shot. Fire companies dispersed the crowd.

There was no path leading from the railroad to the boat, and if a few loads of cinders were placed there in the form of a walk, it could be truthfully said, it is a long felt want.

NOW IN WASHINGTON.

McKinley Reached the National Capital at 11 A. M.

A GREAT OVATION EN ROUTE.

Crowds Turned Out at Different Stations and Cheered the Inaugural Train—The President-Elect's Neighbors Gave Him a Great Demonstration.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—The special train bearing President-elect McKinley and party arrived here at 11 o'clock.

They were escorted to the Ebbitt House, where they are now stopping.

The president-elect and Mrs. McKinley will dine with President and Mrs. Cleveland at the White House tonight.

There were only three stops made between this city and Pittsburg, Altoona, Harrisburg and Baltimore.

Altoona was reached at 3:05 and Harrisburg at 6:45. From the latter place the train was cheered at every station. At Baltimore, which was reached at 9:40, there was an immense demonstration.

CANTON, O., March 2.—It was indeed a beautiful and impressive scene that Canton presented last evening, when her citizens bade farewell to Major and Mrs. McKinley as they entered the special train in waiting to convey them to Washington. The people of the city seemed to have turned out en masse to do honor to the distinguished neighbors and friends who so long have been regarded with the greatest love and esteem and who by the honors they have won in the nation have done so much to attract favorable attention to Canton. No lines were drawn in the large concourse of people which followed the McKinley carriage to the train, and surrounded the station to mingle their cheers in the mighty round which echoed above the din of the train as it disappeared in the east. Young and old, rich and poor, richly-gowned and humbly-clad, lowly and affluent; people of all political convictions, of all creeds and of all social planes touched elbows and jostled each other about in the mighty throng which surrounded the Pennsylvania station, each seeking some point of vantage for a last look at the speeding party, and each good-natured and indifferent to the personal discomfort experienced through the movements of others.

The day dawned with that blustery quality of March weather which brooks no good to prearranged programs. Blasts of wind that made the air seem far colder than the thermometers registered were followed by fitful flurries of snow and they in turn by threats of sleet and icy rainfall. But as the day advanced the weather promises of the morning were not redeemed. There was a decided moderation in the temperature, with now and then a trace of sunshine, and by noon all traces of snow had disappeared. There was still a suggestion of rain, but it was not strong and the committees in charge of the demonstration took heart from the assurance that whatsoever other conditions might prevail, the temperature would be mild and the people of the city would be able to gratify their oft-repeated wishes to extend some concerted farewell demonstration to the president-elect and his wife.

It was not until 6 o'clock last evening that the demonstration proper began with the organization of the escort. But long before that time the uptown streets began to fill with people waiting curiously and not impatiently for the parade. Others were lingering about the station, anxious to catch a glimpse of or mayhap make an inspection of the handsome cars, stories of the beauty of which they have read for days. But the train was not long in the station nor was there opportunity for more than a cursory review. It arrived from Alliance yards about 5:30 o'clock, where the cars were submitted to a careful inspection and test during the day.

In the cab of the engine when the train left Canton Henry Hukill was at the throttle and A. L. Strawn looked after the fires. The train crew was completed with S. T. Bower, conductor; James Doney, baggage master; A. F. King and R. B. Stewart, brakemen.

Immediately back of the engine is combination car No. 4810 with smoking apartments, and back of it the dining car. Three Pullmans, Elkon, Arden and Delphos, follow in the order named. Then comes private car No. 505 and private car No. 38 in the rear. Car No. 38 is the one occupied by the president-elect and Mrs. McKinley. It is a private car without a name save that it is known all over the Panhandle system as No. 38. The walls in it are of white oak planked solid instead of the usual studding.

If it should roll down an embankment, the sides would not break and it would resist almost any kind of a shock in a collision. The top is a double frame work of steel and the ceiling is thoroughly cushioned. The floor is four thicknesses of heavy white oak. The entire car is a huge intricate box. The chief luxury of the interior is the perfect arrangement of everything pertaining to human effort. It has an old-fashioned log fireplace and two palatial bedrooms and a bath opening from each chamber. There is a magnificent silver service and a large collection of rare china.

This, as well as other cars, has been fully decorated with cut flowers, potted plants and tropical exotics, and every possible convenience for the comfort of the party is provided.

A party of officers of the Pennsylvania railroad system arrived in the city in General Manager L. F. Loree's private car. In the party were L. F. Loree, Charles Watts, general superintendent.

As the train pulled out from the station amid a salute of cannon fired by Mr. John C. Dueber, at Dueber Heights, it was greeted by cheers from the assembled multitude.

Following are the cars of the inaugural train, with occupants:

President's car, No. 38—Major McKinley, Mrs. McKinley, Mrs. Maria Saxton, who will be Mrs. McKinley's companion in the White House; Captain and Mrs. L. M. McWilliams of Cairo, cousins of Mrs. McKinley; Clara Thorein, Mrs. McKinley's maid.

Mother McKinley's car, No. 505—Mrs. Nancy Allison McKinley, the mother of the president-elect; Miss Helen Mc-Kinley, sister of the president-elect; Mr. and Mrs. George B. Morse of San Francisco, Mrs. Morse being a niece of Major McKinley; Mrs. James McKinley, Mrs. Abner Osborne and Mrs. Clarence Shaffee of Cleveland.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Barber's car—Mr. and Mrs. M. Barber, Mrs. Barber being Mrs. McKinley's sister; Mr. and Mrs. Duncan of Cleveland, cousins of the president-elect; W. McKinley Barber, James Barber, Miss Ida Barber, Captain and Mrs. H. O. S. Heistand, Mr. and Mrs. Seward Bowman, of Elyria, O.; George Saxton, a brother of Mrs. McKinley; Mr. Will Duncan, Miss Sarah Duncan, of Cleveland; Joseph P. Smith, of Urbana, O.; Mrs. George B. Froese, Canton; Mr. E. L. McKinley, San Francisco.

Escort committee car "Arden"—Colonel G. A. Garretson, Henry Crouse, Mr. Webb C. Hayes, of Cleveland; Colonel and Mrs. John N. Taylor, of East Liverpool, O.; Minnie Lancroft, George W. Floyd, Dr. C. E. Manchester, pastor of the president-elect and wife; Dr. T. H. Phillips, physician to the McKinleys; Private Secretary James Boyle and wife.

Press car—M. A. Havens, W. S. Lloya, A. N. Howells, E. C. Howland, C. M. Pepper, F. B. Loomis, R. P. Skinner, Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Bailee, George H. Freese, Dr. William Shaw Bowen, F. B. Gessner, G. E. McMurray, Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Greenwell, H. C. March, L. E. Reed.

Promptly at 6 last evening the bands, military, clubs and citizens began to organize in the city hall square. Captain Harry Freese, who commanded the famous Canton troop during the campaign, was chief marshal and Captain H. L. Kuhns, his chief of staff. They soon brought order out of chaos in the assembled multitude and a more devoted escort man never had than that which shortly before 7 o'clock marched to the McKinley home. A platoon of white-gloved policemen headed the line and back of it came the Canton troops. This is an organization of nearly 100 representative citizens, organized early in the campaign, to receive, escort and otherwise entertain the visiting delegations. They wore military coats, broad-brimmed hats, top boots, light-colored gauntlets and are all well-mounted and well-trained in cavalry tactics. The troop leaves for Washington today and will participate in the inaugural parade.

Following the troop came Canton's famous Grand Army band. This in turn was followed by the Third battalion, Eighth regiment, Ohio national guard. This regiment was to have been honorary escort to the president-elect on the trip to Washington, and from the capital station to the hotel, but the failure to secure satisfactory railroad arrangements prevented this as well as other Ohio military organizations to join in the inaugural demonstration. Three companies, a signal and a hospital corps constitute the battalion. In the order named were the Canton Business Men's association, Grand Army posts, old soldiers, the First Ward Republican club, of which Major McKinley is a member; the Second Ward Republican club, other clubs and societies and unorganized citizens of Canton, Massillon and other surrounding towns.

Thus organized, the column marched through the public square and up Market Street hill, passing the McKinley house and then countermarching on Market street. When the Business Men's association was opposite the McKinley gate, the column halted and waited for Major and Mrs. McKinley and their attendants to enter the carriages in waiting. This carriage was drawn by four splendidly caparisoned horses and around it the members of the Canton Business Men's association stationed themselves as a guard of honor. Two mounted aides rode abreast of the carriage horses and the business men completed the hollow square in which the carriage moved.

The McKinley arch just at the foot of Market street hill was illuminated as darkness fell over the city and shone resplendent as the column marched under it, going to and from the McKinley house. Hundreds of tri-colored incandescent lights sent their soft rays far along the street on either side and made a stately, now wasted by the weather. It was probably illuminated for the last time last night, and the marchers as they passed looked backward for a last glimpse of what is now the most conspicuous reminder of the exciting campaign in Canton last fall, in which hundreds of thousands of people from all quarters of the country participated. It will be with regret that the razing of this structure will be viewed by Cantonians.

There was no detour from the direct route to the station made by the column. All along the line the carriage, containing the president-elect and wife was kept in a halo of brilliant light from flambeaux, emitted lurid red rays, replaced from time to time as they burned dimly. At various points along the line colored fires were being burned and though there was no organized effort in that line, individuals and various places sent sky through the Roman candles whizzing through the air. As the head of the column reached the train and halted, the rear pushed forward and the crowds from the sidewalks mingled with the marchers, until the platform and surrounding streets were filled with a seething, surging mass of humanity, each striving heroically to get nearest the point where the president-elect would be last seen and some striving for a last handshake, although the committee had arranged that there should be none of this.

Amid cheers and hurrahs from thousands of throats, which all but drowned out the melodious strains of the bands, the McKinley special steamed out of the Canton station at 7:27 p. m., just a moment or two before a slight shower set in, but not in time to interfere with the happy reception Cantonians had arranged for their distinguished departing guests. The crowd about the station was almost impenetrable and never equalled before in Canton. It was not until a detachment of escort had ridden ahead and opened the way that the car ahead and opened the way that the car ahead containing Major and Mrs. McKinley could approach the station. As the party approached the station those on the outside of the crowd sent up a cheer. It was taken up by those nearer the train and grew in volume until it became fairly deafening. The cheering became renewed when the major appeared on the car platform with Mrs. McKinley. He assisted the latter into the train and then with bare head turned and bowed to the crowd. When the cheering had sufficiently subsided, he spoke a few words of farewell, with deep feeling. Those in the crowd were much affected by the parting. Major McKinley on leaving Canton spoke from the rear of the car to the crowd as follows:

"My neighbors and friends and fellow citizens: On the eve of departure to the seat of government, soon to assume the duties of an arduous responsibility as great as can devolve upon any man, nothing could give me greater pleasure than this farewell greeting—this evidence of your friendship and sympathy—your good will, and, I am sure, the prayers of all the people with whom I have lived so long and whose confidence and esteem are dearer to me than any other earthly honors.

"To all of us the future is as a sealed book; but if I can, by official act, or administration, or utterance, in any degree add to the prosperity of our beloved country and the comfort and well being of our splendid citizenship, I will devote the best and most unselfish efforts of my life. The assumption of the chief magistracy is of such a grave importance that partisanship cannot blind the judgement or accept any other considerations but the public good of all in every party and every section.

"With this thought uppermost in my mind, I reluctantly take leave of my friends and my neighbors, cherishing in my heart the sweetest memories and the tenderest thoughts of my old home—my home now, and I trust, my home hereafter, so long as I live. I thank you and bid you all goodbye."

McKinley special ran on a modern schedule in deference to the wishes of Major McKinley and his aged mother and made but a few stops. At Louisville a large crowd of considerable size was gathered on the station platform, and as the train whirled by loud and vociferous cheers from many lusty throats echoed above the noise of the cars.

At Alliance there was a large crowd at the station. This is the location of Mt. Union college of which Major McKinley is a director, and the college boys were out in force to greet him. The college yell was heard clear and distinct above the cheers from hundreds of others.

When Major McKinley bowed his acknowledgements to the great throng at Canton station he stepped inside the car where the cheerful grate fire greeted him and he found his wife almost cushioned in flowers. On a table near the grate was a goldplated horseshoe on a miniature metal easel. It was a rusty iron shoe picked up by City Clerk Howard Burgess of Cleveland on the way to Cleveland station before Chairman Hanna started on his trip to St. Louis. It was then tied to the back of the car, but has since been goldplated. Shortly after the train pulled out of Canton Mother McKinley, 88 years old, passed back from her car, next in front, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Osborne of Cleveland, nearly as old, and Mrs. Major McKinley's sister, Mrs. Marshall Barber. They added their congratulations, but formed a memorable and picturesque scene as they sat about the grate fire. Before the train reached Salem, Captain and Mrs. McWilliams of Chicago, General Manager Loree and Mrs. Saxton joined the group.

PITTSBURG, March 2.—The 100 miles run to Pittsburg was an uninterrupted succession of ovations, although the train has not stopped until Pittsburg station at any point but a water tank. At Alliance railroad and shop people cheered as Mr. McKinley again appeared on the platform and waved his hat as the train sped by. Mr. Webb Hayes, of Cleveland, son of ex-President Hayes, of the escort committee, at some stations stood by the major, but at many stations he appeared alone, springing quickly from his chair, ever alert to return the compliment of the ovation with his acknowledgements.

Beaver Falls, New Brighton and Rochester are grouped about Beaver, Senator Quay's home, and at these points acres of people had gathered about the stations and as the president-elect appeared there were fireworks and whistles and other demonstrations.

At Pittsburg the major was greeted by an enormous crowd. He appeared on the platform and bowed his acknowledgements to the great cheering of the crowd.

MANY VISITORS ARRIVING.

Major McKinley Decides Where He Will Attend Church.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—The railroads are pouring inaugural visitors into town and with bunting flaring from innumerable windows the city is fairly alive to the fact that inauguration day is at hand.

Should the estimates of the several railroads running into Washington hold good there will be a crowd of 235,000 strangers in the city on March 4.

Among the guests of Pennsylvania, who put up at the Metropolitan, Mrs. Cleveland returned from Princeton last evening and will be at the White House till the evening of March 4, to assist Mr. Cleveland in social functions.

The interesting and somewhat delicate question of what church will have the honor of entertaining President McKinley during the coming four years has been settled in favor of the Foundry M. E. church, at Fourteenth and G streets, where he worshipped during his last term of congress.

Gage Entertained at a Dinner.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—Hon. Lyman B. Gage of Chicago and Mrs. Gage were entertained at a dinner by Mr. Thomas Bryan of this city, with whom they are staying temporarily. The only other guests were Secretary and Mrs. Carlisle. The dinner was an informal affair and was intended to give the incoming secretary and Mrs. Gage an opportunity to meet Mr. and Mrs. Carlisle.

Pope's Anniversary Coronation.

ROME, March 2.—The anniversary of the coronation of the pope was duly celebrated yesterday. His holiness, who was in excellent health, received the cardinals and bishops and delivered an address, which was a paraphrase of last June's encyclical.

Fight Between Officials.

KNOXVILLE, March 2.—The Citizens' railway commenced tearing up tracks on Depot street and a fight between city and county officials was precipitated. One laborer was probably fatally shot. Fire companies dispersed the crowd.

The MacVeaghs on the Way Back.

ROME, March 2.—The Hon. Wayne MacVeagh, the United States ambassador to Italy, and Mrs. MacVeagh, have left this city on their way home.

Anyone having cause to walk to the wharf boat is apt to think some very queer things. Yesterday the wharf was in such a condition that one's foot would sink in mud ankle deep. There was no path leading from the railroad to the boat, and if a few loads of cinders were placed there in the form of a walk, it could be truthfully said, it is a long felt want.

TIED UP FOR A TIME

The Petition to Kill the Saloons Went Over.

MR. CORNELIUS HAD A LETTER

He Resigned His Place In Council, and It Was Accepted—Ministers Talked Earnestly In Behalf of Their Chosen Cause
of Temperance.

There was an unusually interesting meeting of council last night, seven of the 10 members being in their places.

Mr. Bowers was in the chair. Mr.
Kelly, Mr. Cornelius and Mr. Michaels
being absent. The reports of officials were read and accepted. A letter from
Mr. Cornelius announced his resignation. Mr. Morrow could not understand it, and wanted a reason, but no one enlightened him. Mr. Beacom moved its acceptance, the motion carried, and there will be two councilmen to elect from the Third.

A letter from a Springfield publishing house stated that Yellow Creek township had bought a book from it, and no
money had ever been received. Mr.
Bowers thought Yellow Creek ought to
pay its bills, and it had cheated the city
out of road tools, leaving nothing but
the book and a lot of debts.

On the recommendation of the committee, council decided to remit the fine
of Ernest Redman, who was released from jail because of poor health. The Evangelical church was assessed half of the usual amount for use of city hall.
Mr. McGregor offered to sell the city floral hall and three lots for $2,000, or two lots and the hall for $1,600. A motion that three members investigate the
uses of the land as a site for the fire station failed to pass, and the matter went down.

Mr. Beacom and Mr. Devore audited
the bills, but they did not pay the Revier Rubber company, of Pittsburgh,
$648.75. The city was short of money,
and they decided to hold it over.

During the evening Reverend Littell,
Doctor Reager and Reverend Gamersfelder, followed by a dozen of Wellsville's good citizens, came in. From this nucleus the crowd grew until almost 100 people were there. Mayor Jones
asked council to hear Reverend Littell,
and that gentleman said:

"In behalf of Wellsville I present to your honorable body this petition containing, we believe, 1,000 names, all having been obtained since yesterday. In behalf of suffering wives and mothers; in behalf of poverty stricken and suffering children; in behalf of young men early learning to drink damnation; in the name of God we ask you to kill this terrible evil in our beautiful city. We present this petition on behalf of the Christian churches and the morality of Wellsville. Hosts are asking for the souls lost on account of this great evil.
Morality and good citizenship go begging. You are responsible for the morality of this city. It is for you to decide whether the good or bad element will rule. You have the power, and you must act. You need not refer this to the people. It is in your power to
act. Just so long as we permit a barrel having the stamp of the United States
to come into this city we know it is us who permit it. We are in earnest, and will stand at your back and support you."

Doctor Reager briefly but earnestly urged action on the petition. "The saloon keepers in obtaining licenses damnify themselves, but we in issuing them ostracize ourselves."

Mr. Morrow moved the petition be referred to the ordinance committee, and
Mr. Armstrong thought it would be best to pass the ordinance on its first reading
and the present council could dispose of
it. Mr. Morrow's motion carried.

Mr. Armstrong said the jail should be improved. Male and female prisoners were placed in the same cell, he said,
and from stories he had heard it was necessary to have separate cells. Mr.
Bowers objected, and Mr. Armstrong
said he had traveled over a considerable part of the country, and Wellsville was
the first place under his notice where
men and women were imprisoned together. He worked hard for reform, but council was not in sympathy with
him, and after voting down his motion decided to adjourn.

The Glee Club.

the coming of the famous glee, mandolin,
guitar and banjo club of Washington
and Jefferson college, Pa., on April 2,

lar.

NOT A GOOD MONTH.

Postmaster Miskall Sends In His Report.

Postmaster Miskall is looking a little sad today, owing to the fact that the business for the month of February did not exceed that of February 1896. In speaking of the decrease to a NEWS RE-VIEW man, he said:

"East Liverpool for the past year has had a hard time, business having been dull in all branches, but I am glad to say
the outlook for the future is indeed bright. The remittance to the government for the past month was but a few dollars less than that of the corresponding month of 1896. The fiscal year of
'96 will end the last of this month, and I am sure my report for the same
will show an increase over the year
of '95."

"Do I expect any improvements in this office? No I cannot see where any can be made. The postoffice inspectors were here not long ago, and they asked me the same question, and I gave them
the same answer."

"As to the increase in salary, none will be made for '97. The business would need to be about $5,000 more than what is done now."

NOTHING IN THE STORY

That Smallpox Had Appeared In East End.

A rumor was current on the streets
last evening to the effect that a case of smallpox had made its appearance in East End, in a family who had recently moved to that section of the city. Health Officer Ogden was seen and stated that there was nothing in the story whatever, and it was simply a canard.

BEAVER DAM, O., Aug. 27, 1895.

My daughter, after being treated by four doctors, and being given up for lost, a neighbor recommended Foley's Kidney Cure. Today she is able to walk several miles without fatigue. I feel we would have lost her if it was not for your medicine.

Respectfully,

MRS. J. M. BAILY.

happy with their surroundings.

"That Tired Feeling"

medicine.

They Walked Away.

A team belonging to Fred Nelly because tired of standing in Sixth street today at noon, and walked off without
the driver. They were stopped in Jefferson street but a short distance from
the stable.

To Consumptives.

As an honest remedy Foley's Honey and Tar does not hold out false hopes in advanced stages, but truthfully claims
to give comfort and relief in the very worst cases, and in the early stages to effect a cure.

A queen is only a

every woman is a
queen if she be a

The crown of wo-

the best and highest
thing that anybody
can do in this world.

the weaknesses or
disorders peculiar to her sex. A false
idea of modesty
prevents the acquisition of knowl-

the most prolific causes of this kind of sickness. Thirty years ago, knowledge of the prevalence of such disorders induced Dr. R. V. Pierce, than as now, chief consulting physician of the Invalid's

and study to the preparation of a remedy
that would invigorate and strengthen the womanly organism—that would cure
perfectly and positively all forms of female weakness—that would take the danger away from childbirth, and greatly lessen the pains of labor. This remedy is

Read what this resident says about Doan's Kidney Pills. Mrs. Wm. James,
who lives at 283 Third street, says: "I have been troubled off and on for the
past eight years with a weakness of the back and kidneys, a dull aching pain
across my loins, up under my shoulder
blades, and rheumatic pain in my right shoulder. I was very susceptible to changes in the weather, and was so bad
at times that I could scarcely stand and support my own weight. The trouble affected my nervous system, causing frequent fluttering of the heart and a shortness of breath. I have generally resorted to porous plasters, but the relief was only temporary. I got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at the W. & W. Pharmacy, and got relief almost at once. The symptoms all left, and I have not felt any since. I feel much better and stronger generally."

Doan's Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50. By mail on receipt of WELLSVILLE.

TIED UP FOR A TIME

The Petition to Kill the Saloons Went Over.

MR. CORNELIUS HAD A LETTER

He Resigned His Place in Council, and It
Was Accepted—Ministers Talked Earnestly in Behalf of Their Chosen Cause
of Temperance.

There was an unusually interesting
meeting of council last night, seven of
the 10 members being in their places.

Mr. Bowers was in the chair, Mr.
Kelly, Mr. Cornelius and Mr. Michaels
being absent. The reports of officials were read and accepted. A letter from
Mr. Cornelius announced his resignation, and wanted a reason, but no one enlightened him. Mr. Beacom moved its acceptance, the motion carried, and there
will be two councilmen to elect from the Third.

A letter from a Springfield publishing
house stated that Yellow Creek township had bought a book from it, and no
money had ever been received. Mr.
Bowers thought Yellow Creek ought to
pay its bills, and it had cheated the city
out of road tools, leaving nothing but
the book and a lot of debts.

On the recommendation of the committee, council decided to remit the fine
of Ernest Redman, who was released
from jail because of poor health. The Evangelical church was assessed half of the usual amount for use of city hall.
Mr. McGregor offered to sell the city
floral hall and three lots for $2,000, or
two lots and the hall for $1,600. A motion that three members investigate the
uses of the land as a site for the fire station failed to pass, and the matter went
down.

Mr. Beacom and Mr. Devore audited
the bills, but they did not pay the Revier Rubber company, of Pittsburgh,
$648.75. The city was short of money,
and they decided to hold it over.

During the evening Reverend Littell,
Doctor Reager and Reverend Gamertsfelder, followed by a dozen of Wellsville's good citizens, came in. From
this nucleus the crowd grew until almost 100 people were there. Mayor Jones
asked council to hear Reverend Littell,
and that gentleman said:

"In behalf of Wellsville I present to your honorable body this petition containing, we believe, 1,000 names, all having been obtained since yesterday. In behalf of suffering wives and mothers; in behalf
of poverty stricken and suffering children; in behalf of young men early
learning to drink damnation; in the name of God we ask you to kill this terrible evil in our beautiful city. We present this petition on behalf of the Christian churches and the morality of Wellsville. Hosts are asking for the
souls lost on account of this great evil.
Morality and good citizenship go beginning. You are responsible for the morality of this city. It is for you to decide whether the good or bad element
will rule. You have the power, and
you must act. You need not refer this
to the people. It is in your power to
act. Just so long as we permit a barrel
having the stamp of the United States
to come into this city we know it is us
who permit it. We are in earnest, and will stand at your back and support you."

Doctor Reager briefly but earnestly
urged action on the petition. "The saloon keeps in obtaining licenses damn themselves, but we in issuing them ostracise ourselves."

Mr. Morrow moved the petition be referred to the ordinance committee, and
Mr. Armstrong thought it would be best
to pass the ordinance on its first reading
and the present council could dispose of
it. Mr. Morrow's motion carried.

Mr. Armstrong said the jail should be improved. Male and female prisoners
were placed in the same cell, he said,
and from stories he had heard it was
necessary to have separate cells. Mr.
Bowers objected, and Mr. Armstrong
said he had traveled over a considerable
part of the country, and Wellsville was
the first place under his notice where
men and women were imprisoned together. He worked hard for reform,
but council was not in sympathy with
him, and after voting down his motion
decided to adjourn.

the coming of the famous glee, mandolin,
guitar and banjo club of Washington
and Jefferson college, Pa., on April 2,

lar.

NOT A GOOD MONTH.

Postmaster Miskall Sends In His Report.

Postmaster Miskall is looking a little
sad today, owing to the fact that the
business for the month of February did
not exceed that of February 1896. In speaking of the decrease to a News Reviewer man, he said:

"East Liverpool for the past year has
had a hard time, business having been
dull in all branches, but I am glad to say
the outlook for the future is indeed
bright. The remittance to the government for the past month was but a few dollars less than that of the corresponding month of 1896. The fiscal year of
'96 will end the last of this month, and I am sure my report for the same
will show an increase over the year
of '95."

"Do I expect any improvements in
this office? No I cannot see where any
can be made. The postoffice inspectors
were here not long ago, and they asked me the same question, and I gave them
the same answer."

"As to the increase in salary, none
will be made for '97. The business would need to be about $5,000 more
than what is done now."

NOTHING IN THE STORY

That Smallpox Had Appeared In East End.

A rumor was current on the streets
last evening to the effect that a case of smallpox had made its appearance in East End, in a family who had recently
moved to that section of the city. Health Officer Ogden was seen and stated that
there was nothing in the story whatever, and it was simply a canard.

BEAVER DAM, O., Aug. 27, 1895.

My daughter, after being treated by
four doctors, and being given up for
lost, a neighbor recommended Foley's Kidney Cure. Today she is able to walk several miles without fatigue. I feel we would have lost her if it was
not for your medicine.

Respectfully,
Mrs. J. M. BAILY.

The Astor Club.

"Eat, drink and be merry," is the motto of the Astor club, which was recently organized. This is verified by the increased membership which the club is enjoying. The club meets three times a day at the residence of Mrs.
Williams, of Fourth street, and all seem
happy with their surroundings.

"That Tired Feeling"

Overcomes us when inferior preparations are recommended by unscrupulous dealers as "just as good as Foley's Honey and Tar Cough Syrup," when we know the unequalled merits of this great medicine.

A Dance Tonight.

A private dance will be held at Bradshaw hall this evening by a number of the baseball boys. This is the last evening before Lent commences, and the dance will undoubtedly be largely attended.

They Walked Away.

A team belonging to Fred Nelly became tired of standing in Sixth street
today at noon, and walked off without
the driver. They were stopped in Jefferson street but a short distance from
the stable.

To Consumptives.

As an honest remedy Foley's Honey
and Tar does not hold out false hopes in
advanced stages, but truthfully claims
to give comfort and relief in the very
worst cases, and in the early stages to
effect a cure.

For sale at Bulger's and Reed's drug stores.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex McGraw were called to West Alexandria, W. Va., today, by the sad intelligence that Mrs.
Wilsie, Mr. McGraw's sister, died at her home in that place last night.

A queen is only a
woman after all, and every woman is a
queen if she be a perfect woman.
The crown of wo-
manhood is motherhood. There is no higher thing than this. There is no better thing that any woman can do
than to be a mother
of bright and happy children. That is the best and highest
thing that anybody
can do in this world.
It cannot be achieved by a woman who isn't healthy, who suffers from any of
the weaknesses or
disorders peculiar to
her sex. A false
idea of modesty
which prevents the acquisition of knowledge, and the carelessness which prevents an application of knowledge are
the most prolific causes of this kind
of sickness. Thirty years ago, knowledge of the prevalence of such disorders induced Dr. R. V. Pierce, then a new,
chief consulting physician of the Invalid's
Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, N. Y., to devote a great amount of time
and study to the preparation of a remedy
that would invigorate and strengthen the
womanly organism—that would cure
perfectly and positively all forms of female weakness—that would take the
danger away from childbirth, and greatly
lessen the pains of labor. This remedy is called Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.
That it accomplished the object for which it was intended is proven by its remarkable and continued success for 30 years.

Some Items of Interest Furnished
Our Representative by a Well-

Items pertaining to the domestic life of people we don't know, who live in foreign parts, are as a rule dry and uninteresting to our readers. It is only when such items touch upon some matter or individual of which the reader has some knowledge that attention is centered upon them, and in the present instance a perusal of what follows will be found not only interesting, but valuable. Remember always, keep it in mind, don't lose sight of the fact that one line of local evidence about any article is worth a column of foreign testimony.
Read what this resident says about
Doan's Kidney Pills. Mrs. Wm. James,
who lives at 283 Third street, says: "I have been troubled off and on for the
past eight years with a weakness of the
back and kidneys, a dull aching pain
across my loins, up under my shoulder
blades, and rheumatic pain in my right shoulder. I was very susceptible to changes in the weather, and was so bad
at times that I could scarcely stand and
support my own weight. The trouble
affected my nervous system, causing frequent fluttering of the heart and a shortness of breath. I have generally resorted
to porous plasters, but the relief was only temporary. I got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at the W. & W. Pharmacy, and got relief almost at once. The symptoms all left, and I have not felt any since. I feel much better and stronger
generally."

dealers. Price 50 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50. By mail on receipt of
